Profile

I am an outgoing individual that can offer a high standard of service in any workplace. A very reliable person, priding myself on a high standard of time keeping and a positive attitude towards work. Management skills and communication skills are a key part to any job which I have. I can handle tasks with accuracy and efficiency. Working under pressure is one of my strongest attributes and I can solve problems using my own initiative effectively. I am an approachable person who can fluently adapt around new teams and surroundings wherever necessary. I thrive on new challenges and my ambition is to expand my current skill set to have a good understanding of offshore operations. Able to work safely in high pressure and demanding situations both as an individual and when working as part of a team. I always ensure health and safety requirements are met, working at a high standard, completing all work scopes to a professional level. I am now looking for a new challenge to bring my discipline, individual drive, commitment, and a first-class can-do attitude to delivering all work scopes safely and on time with a company that values passion, positivity, integrity and hard work.
